Re: Request for Modification of Sentence

AFTER REVIEWING YOUR CORRESPONDENCE ADDRESSED TO THE COURT, THE COURT HAS DETERMINED THAT THE CORRESPONDENCE MUST BE RETURNED TO YOU WITHOUT FURTHER CONSIDERATION FOR THE FOLLOWING REASON(S):

- (X) Requests for action by the Court, such as requests for modification of sentence, must be in the form of a motion.
- (X) The Court will not consider motions or other correspondence that do not contain all the following information: the criminal action number(s) for the case that is the subject matter of your correspondence, the inmate's full name and any aliases, date of birth, and SBI number, the inmate's sentencing date, and the name of the sentencing judge. All of this information is listed on the status sheet provided by the Department of Correction.
- (X) Motions, requests for action by the Court, must be sent signed under the penalty of perjury and be sent directly to the Prothonotary's Office to be docketed and referred to the Judge. A copy of the motion must be served upon the Department of Justice, Office of the Attorney General, with an attached certificate of service. Do not send your motion, or a copy of the motion, directly to the Judge.
- ( ) The Court's records do not indicate a case involving you in Superior Court regarding the criminal action number(s) you have listed. Your correspondence has been returned to you to file in the appropriate court or for further identifying information.
- ( ) Court records show that you are represented by _____. The Court will not accept pro se applications for relief by defendants who are represented by counsel unless the Court has granted permission to participate with counsel in the defense. (See Super. Ct. Crim. Rule 47).
